Learning Objective

- We are learning to understand that some people in Scotland have less than others.
- We are learning to understand what it is like to have less than others.
- We are learning to understand the importance of treating others with kindness.

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child

Article 2

You have the right to protection against discrimination. This means that nobody can treat you badly because of your colour, sex or religion, if you speak another language, have a disability, or are rich or poor.

Article 26

You have the right to help from the government if you are poor or in need.

Article 27

You have the right to a good enough standard of living. This means you should have food, clothes and a place to live.

What do you need to be happy?

Statement Corner

Listen to each statement then go to the appropriate corner of the room depending on whether you agree with the statement, disagree or don't know.

Be ready to say why
